MUFTI AND JEANS FOR GENES DAYS

MUFTI DAYS/SCHOOL SOCIALS

Students may attend school on Mufti Days in 'mufti'; i.e. non-school uniform. Mufti Days are fun and raise money for various charities. A gold coin donation is required for all students who choose to wear 'mufti'.

Students are expected to wear clothes that are sensible, modest and according to the following guidelines. Students who do not follow these guidelines for appropriate mufti day dress will be issued three (3) detentions. Students who dress in immodest clothing will be required to get changed into clothing provided by the school or spend the day in Time-out.

The following are NOT to be worn:

- Singlets of any kind and/or sleeveless T-shirts.
- Inappropriate logos/messages on T-shirts.
- Immodest tops or midriffs. Tops should not reveal your waist.
- Tight clothing.
- Short skirts & short shorts (i.e. must be at least  $\frac{3}{4}$  of thigh).
- Pants, shorts and skirts should not have any rips or tears above the knee.
- Thongs/sandals (students MUST wear closed-in-shoes). 'Van' style shoes are OK.
- NO facial piercings apart from our normal ear-piercing rule (normal school rules apply re: jewellery).
- Years 9 -12 female students ONLY may wear SUBTLE makeup. OK: soft/lightly applied tinted moisturiser; blush; mascara – which is NOT thick and/or clumpy; lip gloss, (no lipstick).
- Hair does not have to be tied back UNLESS requested to do so by a class teacher for that particular lesson. (However, hair should not cover the face).
- Students are to wear either entirely mufti dress or full normal school uniform. A combination of both is not permitted. This includes school rules regarding hair tied up, makeup and jewellery.

JEANS FOR GENES DAY

Jeans for Genes is a fundraising campaign of Children's Medical Research Institute. A gold coin donation is required for all who are wearing jeans for the day.

Students are permitted to wear Jeans on the day with their normal school uniform tops. Please note: jeans should not have any rips or tears above the knee. In keeping with the spirit of the day, no denim shorts or skirts are permitted, only jeans.
